I sigh

Don’t know why though

I just do it

Maybe because I’m tired

Maybe

Or because there’s nothing else to do

Just sigh

It’s relieving

Like taking a weight off of your shoulders

Like breathing anew

Brain restart

No thought pass through it at that moment

Just silence

Emptiness

Sometimes, that’s all I long for

Quiet,

Tranquil times

No need to think about what just happened

Or what happens

Or what will happen

Not about my hurt

My heart

My whatnot

I just sigh

It’s so funny when you think about it

No actual reason.

You know, not everything has to have a reason

It can just be

Because that’s how it is

Just like life sometimes

Or actions

Or words

Or thoughts

They just are

Because they were made to be

To exist

Why do humans need to judge everything?

Can’t they just accept that it is like that?

Why criticise?

Why not leave it be?

Weird but not strange

Just live, and life will move on

Just live and do your part in this life

Hopeless

That’s what i am sometimes

I don’t know

I just feel like that

Like everything and anything is not right

It can never be

It will never be

Because it is my own

Because i do it, i judge it

I create it

I focus on it

It is mine and mine alone

But, why?

Because why not, that is what i think most of the times

Why can’t i just change it

Remove it

Add something new

Why?

Because,

Just because

To change is natural

To not change is strange

Unnatural

Inhuman

Change,

Not because i want it, or because i feel like it

But because i need it

I can’t avoid it

It is in my DNA

Written all over my face

CHANGE, CHANGE, CHANGE

Change of voice

Change of face

Change of friends

Of life, of loves

Change of interests

Of jobs

Of all

This is who i am,

This is what i’ve done

If there’s only one thing i know for sure about me

That is that i have changed, and i will continue to change

Losses, additions

Life has all of them and for the better

If it would have been just a line

I’d be dead

Just like my heartbeat

F it man

I’m

I am

I just am man

I am and that is enough for now

We’ll see what happens when it happens

No point in worrying

Nor dwelling

LIVE, because that’s what i was made for

Live <3.
